Supervisor McConnell to be Given Public Service Award

Leadership Fairfax Inc. will honor Fairfax County Supervisor Elaine McConnell as one of the recipients of its 2002 Northern Virginia Leadership Awards. McConnell, to be presented the Public Service Award, will be recognized at the organization’s awards banquet on Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Westfields Marriott in Chantilly, Virginia for her leadership on issues affecting Fairfax County residents, including transportation, special education and law enforcement.

McConnell, who is serving her 19th year as supervisor for the Springfield District on the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, is a native of Florida. She and her husband “Mac” have lived in the West Springfield area since 1961. She is CEO of the family business she established in 1964, Accotink Academy, which now has four schools and over 275 employees. A pioneer in the field of learning disabilities, having established the first school for children with learning disabilities in the D.C. Metropolitan area in 1969, McConnell has continued her research in this field and her papers on handwriting and math disorders have been circulated throughout the country.

She has also been a strong advocate for the needs of the Fairfax County Police and Fire departments, supporting the addition of drug enforcement officers, laser radar equipment, take-home cars for police officers, additional patrol officers and equipment for the Fire Department.

McConnell was instrumental in the creation of the Virginia Railway Express (VRE), served as chairman of the operation board for VRE in 2001 and is still a member of the board. She is Vice-chair of the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission and chairs the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Transportation Committee. McConnell also serves on numerous local boards and was appointed by the Governor to serve on the State Mental Health Board and the State Hazardous Material Board. In May 2002, she received an award from the Virginia Transit Association for her “Outstanding Contribution by a Public Official.”

Leadership Fairfax Inc. initiated the Northern Virginia Leadership Awards in 1997 to recognize individuals and groups that made a difference in the Northern Virginia community through their vision, innovation, courage and inspiration. Leadership Fairfax is a non-profit organization formed from a 1987 initiative of the Fairfax Chamber of Commerce to develop current and emerging leaders within the business and local community and integrate those leaders into Fairfax County, the region and the state. For more information, visit www.leadershipfairfax.org or call 703-749-0409, TTY 711 (Virginia Relay Center).

Health Department Announces Flu Vaccine Available

Flu and pneumococcal pneumonia vaccines are currently available at local Health Department offices for adults over age 65 and children or adults with chronic cardiovascular and pulmonary disorders. Children under 18 years must be accompanied by a parent or guardian and have a written physician’s order for either vaccine.

Persons who would like to get a flu shot but are not eligible to receive the vaccine from a Health Department clinic should contact their personal physician or call the Fight the Flu Hotline at 1-877-895-5284 for information on alternate locations where flu shots are available.

The flu season typically begins in late December and extends into March. The vaccine will reduce a person’s chances of getting the flu or lessen the severity of the illness if infection does occur. Protection begins approximately two weeks after receiving the vaccine.

There is a charge of $11 for the flu vaccine and $20 for the pneumococcal pneumonia vaccine. Medicare Part-B (non-HMO) will be accepted; Medicaid will be accepted only for those in a high-risk category (chronic illness). Recipients must bring their identification cards and should call one of the offices listed below to schedule an appointment.
